Description

This villa is a perfect escape from the overdeveloped tourist areas. Its Chalong location allows you to enjoy a quiet and relaxed atmosphere. Yet, the island's golf courses are within easy reach and, for those with families, the island's schools and shopping are at your fingertips. The open plan living area is truly spacious. The full Western kitchen has granite counter tops and wrap-around white cabinetry with loads of storage. It features a built-in hob and hood, oven, and microwave. The dining area seats 6. The lounge is large without being ostentatious and is furnished in a homey, contemporary style with Thai accents. The bedrooms feature walk-in or built-in closets and each has plenty of breathing room. One bathroom features a jacuzzi-style tub and separate, enclosed shower. Marble, teak, and intricate tile work abound throughout the home. The pool terrace is really the highlight. The 40 sqm pool is surrounded by raised wooden decking. On the other side of the pool there is a completely self-contained guest suite with double bed and bathroom. The house sits on a 3,500 sqm plot full of mature, tropical trees and stone pathways. A solar energy system ensures that you are doing your part for the environment. A double carport protects your vehicles. About Chalong Chalong Bay is situated on the southeast coast of Phuket, and is the main gateway to other islands such as Phi Phi and Racha island, with a long pier where tour boats and diving expeditions are boarded and there are customs and immigration offices. Chalong Bay is no beach for sunbathing or swimming, but taking a stroll along Chalong Pier always provides great views of the outlying islands. Within a short distance of the pier, you will find some high quality beachside restaurants and bars to enjoy. Within 10-15 minutes' drive one way is Phuket Town, and the other way Rawai, with many popular bars and restaurants. Kata Beach and Nai Harn Beach are also 15-20 minutes' drive away.
