All the construction was with double thickness wall with internal insulation, and vented roofs, ensure that the rooms stay cool with just the fans working and we do get cooling breezes during the night. None of our guests so far, have used the AC units, which are regularly been serviced. There is a safe for valuables in the utility room. Kata beach is one of the finest of Phuket's beaches. The gently sloping shoreline and pristine sands make this the ideal swimming beach in the dry season and the best surfing beach in the low season. The area around Kata is home to some of the top Thai and Western restaurants on Phuket.
